

Landscapes of Memory: A Documentary Film about Ruth Kluger

Department of European Languages & Studies
German Program present

A film screening of a documentary film about
UCI Professor Emerita Ruth Kluger.

Ruth Kluger is the author of "Still Alive: A Holocaust Girlhood Remembered," an extraordinary memoir which has become a standard text in many university courses and which has contributed to her receiving numerous prestigious prizes and awards, including the Prix de la Shoah, the Thomas Mann Prize, the Goethe Medaille, the Heinrich Heine Medaille, and the Austrian Danubius Prize. Austrian Filmmaker and Talk Show host, Renata Schmidtkunz, who is the 2012 recipient of the Preis der Stadt Wien für Publizistik, spent over three years filming Kluger in four significant places in her life: Vienna, Irvine, Göttingen, and Israel. The film premiered in October 2011 in Vienna and was shown on Austrian television. Since that time, Kluger and Schmidtkunz have screened it in locations throughout Europe and Israel, conducting discussions and question and answer sessions. They are now on a tour of a number of US universities.

Thursday, April 11, 2013

Reception: 5:30 PM

Location:

Humanities Instructional Building
HIB 137

Film Screening: 6:30 PM

Location:

Biological Sciences III
Lecture Hall
BS3 1200

Humanities Core Course, UCI Humanities Center, the Departments of History and Film & Media Studies, & the Program in Jewish Studies

UNIVERSITY of CALIFORNIA · IRVINE