

BADIUCAO + MELISSA CHAN

@ UC Irvine
March 3 & 5, 2025

Film Screening: China's Artful Dissident

Monday, March 3 | 5:00pm | HG 1070

China's Artful Dissident follows China's foremost political cartoonist and street artist, Badiuca, exiled in Australia, who uses his art to take on Chinese President Xi Jinping and his authoritarian regime. (2019, dir. Danny Ben-Moshe)

Badiuca + Melissa Chan in Conversation

Wednesday, March 5 | 12:00pm | HIB 135

International activist and artist Badiuca and foreign correspondent Melissa Chan are in conversation with each other and with students as they reflect on a range of topics, including Badiuca's approach to art activism, how China's propaganda and surveillance works, and how the creative arts have become powerful tools for expression and accountability against authoritarian states around the world.

UCI Humanities Core Program